HORRORS OF WAR AND MASSACRE

Dr. Clarence D. Usher Gives Startling Revelation of Conditions in Turkey—Small Armenian Force Held Turkish Army at Bay for 28 Days—Urgent Need of Relief Funds.

The horrors of war and massacre described by Clarence D. Usher, M. D., a medical missionary to Van, Turkey, and well known in this city, before a large audience at the Davis theatre on Sunday evening. How thousands of Armenian women and children were unmercifully murdered by cut-throat Turkish regiments, how the Red Cross flag on the hospital at Van was disregarded by the barbarous Turkish soldiers and how even Old Glory, the emblem of purity and freedom, was ridiculed by Turkish bullets in a pastime, these were some of the above the American hospital at Van, were some of the revelations made to the people by Dr. Usher, who is making an appeal for financial aid for the Armenian relief fund.

Practically all the children of the city, entitled their evening services in order that their congregations might hear Dr. Usher's story of conditions in the land of the Armenian.

His Honor, Mayor Timothy C. Murphy, was chairman of the meeting.

Rev. Frederick W. Coleman, pastor of Trinity Methodist Episcopal church, was the first speaker.

Dr. Usher began by telling of the mobilization of the Turks which was started July 31, 1915.

From the first the destruction of the Christian race was determined.

They were maltreated and starved in the army and plundered and banished in the name of requisition.

Following the lead set by Germany, all the Turkish regiments were ordered to spare but that we needed the supplies to continue our work.

They would take whatever they wanted.

Most of our supplies were in the cellar and to prevent the soldiers from getting them, we had to hide them in the door.

From the door, they started for me, my companion, Rev. E. A. Yarrow, seized him and whirled him about until he didn't know where he stood.

Fighting for a Principle.

The order was then given to summon twenty gendarmes. Call a soldier, I tell you this to show you, I could not withstand a hundred gendarmes.

Yes we can, said Rev. Mr. Yarrow, for a minute, then it dawned on him that we were fighting for a principle.

I tell you this to show you, I could not withstand a hundred gendarmes.
